FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Mutual of Omaha Bank Appoints State President for Nevada

Mutual of Omaha Bank has appointed Scott Emmer state president for its Nevada market, the company announced. Based in Las Vegas, Emmer is responsible for leading the strategic growth and management of Mutual of Omaha Bank's statewide operations in Nevada, which includes seven community bank locations offering personal and business banking services to customers in Las Vegas, Reno, Laughlin and Carson City.

Emmer, a longtime Nevada resident, brings nearly 20 years of experience to Mutual of Omaha Bank, most recently serving as senior vice president, commercial banking manager and senior lender at Northern Trust Bank in Las Vegas.

"Scott Emmer is a highly knowledgeable and experienced banker who understands the unique banking needs of Nevada communities and their businesses," said Kevin Hale, executive vice president of community banking for Mutual of Omaha Bank. "Given his solid track record of leadership, I'm confident in Scott's ability to help Mutual of Omaha Bank continue to grow and become a true banking leader in Nevada."

Emmer earned his bachelor's degree from Arizona State University, his Juris Doctor degree from the University of Maryland School of Law and has been a member of the State Bar of Nevada since 1996. He has been a Nevada resident for 33 years and graduated from Chaparral High School in Las Vegas.
