FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Mutual of Omaha Bank Opens Texas Headquarters, Commercial Banking Offices in Dallas

Mutual of Omaha Bank will open the new headquarters for its Texas market and statewide commercial banking operation on Tuesday, Dec. 8, Texas Market President Robert Strong announced.

Strategically located in a nine-story office tower overlooking the Dallas North Tollway in the Preston Center business district, the bank's Texas headquarters features 14,000 square feet of Class "A" office space on the lobby level of the building. The building, located at 5950 Sherry Lane, offers immediate access to downtown, North Dallas, Love Field and DFW International Airport.

"The opening of our new Texas headquarters is as a key milestone as we continue building Mutual of Omaha Bank's presence in Texas," Strong said. "Just over a month ago, we opened our first full-service bank in Dallas and have already experienced an overwhelming response as customers look for a strong, stable banking partner they can count on. Our new headquarters and commercial banking hub will allow us to serve even more Texas businesses, offering a comprehensive menu of financing and treasury management solutions."

Mutual of Omaha Bank is a full-service bank providing financial solutions to individuals and businesses across the United States. With more than $3.5 billion in assets, Mutual of Omaha Bank has full-service locations in Arizona, California, Colorado, Nebraska, Nevada and Texas, and operates loan production offices in Florida, Iowa and Kansas. It is a subsidiary of Mutual of Omaha, a 100-year-old insurance and financial services company with more than $22 billion in total assets and high ratings from leading ratings agencies.
